

The Jane McLeod

Last Updated Wednesday, 23 July 2008

The Jane McLeod

Location:

Off McLeod Island, west of Parry Sound

Depth:

0 - 25 Feet

(6 - 16metres)

Visibility:

8 - 20 feet

(1.8 - 4.8 metres)

Built in 1868, the schooner Jane McLeod, the vessel ran aground on what is now know as McLeod Island on the night of November 4, 1890. The Captain and crew were stranded on the island for five days waiting to be rescued.